

$75 SALARY A MONTH.

You fritter away say $5 of it a month for needless things. The things perish and your money is gone. In 5 years you've lost $300.40 say nothing of what that sum would earn.

Put It Another Way:
You save $5 a month and deposit it with the

Dime Deposit
AND Discount Bank
You get 3 per cent. compound interest for your money. In 5 years you have $343.
Which Course Is Wisest?

THE MODERN HARDWARE STORE
Preparing for a Home.

THREE THINGS

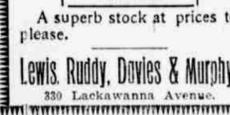

are needed in a home—a place to cook, a place to eat and a place to sleep.
If necessary, you can eat and sleep on the floor, but you can't cook on the floor.
You must have some sort of an apparatus to do your cooking, and the Sterling Range.

Is the very best thing on earth for that purpose.
"Has No Equal."

Foot & Shear Co.
119 N. Washington Ave

BOOTS and SHOES

See our new arrivals in Ladies, Misses' and Children's Shoes. Black, Tan and Russet.

MEASUREMENTS
A superb stock at prices to please.

Lewis, Ruddy, Davies & Murphy.
330 Lackawanna Avenue.

DR. TAYLOR, DENTIST.

121 Wyoming Avenue, next door to Hotel Jermyn. Residence, 1700 Sanderson Avenue. Experienced, practical, scientific. No complaints against charges or work.

PERSONAL

Miss Margaret Gibbs, of South Main Avenue, spent yesterday at Harco's Lake.
Councilman M. J. Walsh, of Wilkes-Barre, was among yesterday's Scranton visitors.
City Editor P. J. Ramsey, of the Wilkes-Barre Times, called on Scranton friends yesterday.
Dr. Arthur Moore, of Hazleton, was yesterday the guest of his brother, Charles Moore, Coroner Roberts has recovered from the effects of injuries sustained by being thrown from his carriage recently.
John H. Reynolds, of Wilkes-Barre, was among the spectators at yesterday afternoon's base ball game in this city.
Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hill have returned from Florida, where they spent the winter at their home on the Indian river.
Mrs. J. W. Westline and son, Nelson, of Chambersburg, Pa., are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. F. A. Dony, of Clay Avenue.
Mrs. Thomas Phillips, of Kingston, and her niece, Miss Annie Williams, a student at Stroudsburg Normal school, were the guests of Scranton friends yesterday.

Coroner's Jury.

The jury in the case of David Glownell, who committed suicide by blowing his brains out with a shotgun, will meet this afternoon at the West Side police station at 3 o'clock sharp. The following make up the jury: Wallace Mosher, Lieutenant Williams, Kish Peters, P. H. Warren, John Lewis, Dr. Sutton.

All Welcome.
Don't miss the grand opening of Schriever's Photo Art Gallery, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. Music by Bauer.

Memorial Library Dedicated.
Lately, May 30—The Van Wyckel Memorial Library at Lafayette College was dedicated today with appropriate ceremonies. L. P. Pardee, of Hazleton, Pa., made the presentation speech and John W. Halsey, of Wilkes-Barre, president of the board of trustees, accepted the gift for the college. An address was made by Professor E. C. Richardson, Ph. D., of Princeton University. The library was erected at a cost of $50,000 from a legacy left by A. S. Van Wyckel, of Hazleton, the millionaire coal operator.

TO BRING ABOUT REFORM.

Albert E. Turner Outlines Work They Are Engaged In.
Albert E. Turner, of Philadelphia, associate secretary of the union committee of this city is making his headquarters at the Hotel Jermyn. When seen last night by a Tribune man he said:

"I am here for the purpose of consulting business men and others with a view to organizing a northeastern auxiliary committee to co-operate with the union committee for the promotion of ballot reform and the merit system in Pennsylvania. The movement is entirely non-partisan, representing the Pennsylvania Ballot Reform Association, which was organized in 1889; Pennsylvania Civil Service Reform Association and Municipal League of Philadelphia.
"The union committee seeks to have enacted providing for ballot reform and the general adoption of the merit system in filling appointments of offices and to have the election laws codified. They have not been codified since 1878. The Pennsylvania Ballot Reform Association's bill passed by the last house and known as the Keator bill as advocated by the union committee. It provides a simple and much smaller form of ballot, groups the candidates under the title of office for which their names are placed, reduces the percentage of signatures required to place a ticket on the ballot and has some provision for a better count. A conference will probably be arranged to be addressed by prominent Philadelphians."

DID MICHAEL HEHER PERISH

Thought to Have Died in Flames Which Consumed His Home.
The dwelling house of Michael Heher of 312 Sixteenth street caught fire this morning at 2:30 o'clock and was completely destroyed. There is a strong belief that Michael Heher, who is an aged man perished in the flames. His wife, who was rescued, says that she supposed he was following her out of the building, but he could not be found anywhere about. The police and firemen were endeavoring to search the ruins at the hour of going to press, but the fire was still too fierce.

SCRANTON CARRIERS DOWNED

Pittston Brethren Give Them a Drubbing and a Banquet.
One of the chief amusements of December day in Pittston was a game of base ball between the Scranton and Pittston letter carriers, played at the West Pittston fair grounds before several hundred spectators.
The Scrantonians were downed by a score of 29 to 12. Only six innings were played. Although this game did not border on the professional line, there were enough good plays to keep up the interest.
G. K. Jones started in the box for Scranton, but was knocked out in the third inning. The home team scored eight runs. He was replaced by Campbell, who was also touched up freely. Cawley's curves proved somewhat of a puzzle for the visitors, who secured but seven scattered hits. The totals lined up as follows:
Scranton—Campbell, and c.; B. E. Wells, c.; George K. Jones, p.; 1b and 3b; John R. Davis, 2b and 4b; Ben L. Jones, 2b; Arues Jenkins, 3b and 1b; Thomas Hirtley, c.; William Hoer, H.; William Cannon, cf.; M. Spillman, rf and e.
Pittston—George Delehanty, 1b.; Thomas Cawley, p.; John Flynn, c.; James Bone, 2b.; James Galt, 3b.; Frank McCann, ss.; Will Gillespie, 1b.; John Dempsey, cf.; Albert Elterich, rf.; Charles Curry, ss.
Score by innings: 1-0, 2-0, 3-0, 4-0, 5-0, 6-0, 7-0, 8-0, 9-0, 10-0, 11-0, 12-0.
After the game the Scrantonians were dined at the Sinclair house by their Pittston brethren in Uncle Sam. Before the ball players the following Scranton carriers enjoyed the hospitality of their Pittston brethren: John R. Thomas, J. P. Foster, George Geherer, Armit Thomas, Joseph Fildan, Joseph Schell, F. Quincy Emery, John H. Kelly, William Owens, Superintendent W. H. Phillips, H. E. Phillips, George Frisbe, M. O'Malley, James Reilly.

PRICE OF MEATS HAS GONE UP.

Advance Ranges from $1 to $2.50 on the Hundred Pounds.
The price of meat has taken a rise of between $1 and $2.50 on the hundred pounds, ranging according to the quality, and local butchers are bemoaning the fact accordingly. Practically all the meat received in town comes from the west, and must be obtained through the great firms controlling the market. For the past two weeks the wholesale price has been climbing and it is expected will continue ascending. The change in the wholesale rates will affect the prices for home consumption, and the buyers will now have to pay from 10 to 25 cents more per pound for veal, mutton, beef, etc. It is expected that meat will remain high until the middle of summer. Prices on the meat have risen about as follows:
Veal—$1.00 on a hundred pounds.
Pork—$1.50 on a hundred pounds.
Beef—$1.50 on a hundred pounds.
Mutton—$2.50 on a hundred pounds.
The local dealers take the change philosophically and say that although in former years the price on meat usually dropped, for the last two years or so the price has been going up.

TOUR OF INSPECTION.

Teachers' Committee of Board of Control Today Visits Public Schools.
The teachers' committee of the board of control will today begin its annual inspection of the central city and Green Ridge schools. They will make the rounds today and tomorrow, visiting the class rooms and hearing recitations.
President Jayne, of the board of control, will accompany the committee, as will also Superintendent of the City Schools George Howell. The members of this particular branch of the board are: Chairman, Louis Schaefer, Jacob Schaefer, of the Tenth ward; John Gibbons, of the Twentieth ward; Captain W. A. May, of the Ninth; A. B. Eynon, of the Fourth; A. B. Schriever, of the Sixteenth, and D. J. Roche, of the Seventh.

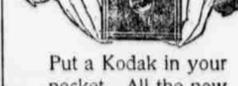

A Rare Treat

awaits you at the opening of Schriever's Photo Art exhibition, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. All welcome Music by Bauer.

Saegertown Sarsaparilla and Ginger Ale.

Trade Supplied,
E. G. COURSEN
Wholesale and Retail.

Grand Clam Bake.
at P. F. Moran's, 310 Spruce street, this afternoon and evening. Music by Lawrence's orchestra.
Smoke The Hotel Jermyn cigar, 10c.

Put a Kodak in your pocket. All the new styles to select from at
KEMP'S STUDIO

VISITING WESTERN COAL DEALERS

OVER ONE HUNDRED OF THEM ARE NOW IN THE CITY.

They Are Members of the Michigan and Indiana Retail Coal Dealers' Association and Are Here to Inspect Mining Operations—Will Be Taken to the Bellevue and Pennsylvania Coal Company's Dunmore Mines Today—Surprise of Some of the Visitors at Scranton's Progress
Scranton is now entertaining within her gates over one hundred of the representative retail coal dealers of the middle west, all members of the Indiana and Michigan Retail Coal Dealers' association, an organization with a membership of over 350, which, to use a trite phrase, "cuts the several feet thick" in the handling of anthracite coal in that part of the country.
The association members have long had a wish to visit this region and see for themselves the modus operandi of mining anthracite coal, their stock in trade. This year this desire took a well defined form and became an actual fact. Excursion rates from Detroit, where the annual convention was held on Monday, to this city were secured, and by contributions to the excursion fund from several honorary members of the association, the cost was reduced a little more than $9 per head, which is certainly remarkably low.
The party left Detroit at 12 o'clock Tuesday night on a special train on the Michigan Central railroad. They arrived in Buffalo at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning and left that city at 9:30 o'clock, arriving here at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, tired and bedraggled somewhat, but happy nevertheless. It was thought at first that they would not arrive until 10 o'clock last night, so that the arrangements of the board of trade reception committee were somewhat set naught. The committee arose to the occasion, however, and several of the individual members chartered special cars last night and took the visitors to various parts of the city. "This city is certainly a revelation to me," said one of the dealers last night. "I expected to find a dirty, sooty, dingy town, with coal coal everywhere. Instead I find a neat, clean, bustling, up-to-date, progressive city. I can't get over it."
This morning at 9:30 o'clock seventy-five of the visitors will board a special train on the Lackawanna and be taken to the Bellevue mines and escorted through the workings of that colliery by Superintendent E. Loomis. At the same time another party of twenty-five will be taken through one of the Pennsylvania Coal company's Dunmore mines by Thomas H. Dale. This afternoon the visitors will be taken through the International Correspondence Schools and the steel mills by the reception committee. They leave the city tonight and will spend tomorrow in Buffalo.

SIEGE OF COLESBURG.

Described in a Letter Mayor Moir Received from His Sister, Mrs. J. H. Cooper.
Mayor James Moir has just received a most interesting letter from his sister, Mrs. J. H. Cooper, who lives in Colesburg, South Africa, during the three and a half month's siege of that town by the English. The mayor knew that she was in the town and has been kept on the anxious seat regarding her safety until he received this letter, which is as follows:
"After war was declared I wrote and told Barbara not to worry about me, as I was a long way from the seat of war, and promised to write every week during the trouble. But instead of my writing to her, she wrote to me and could not write to any one. The Boers occupied Colesburg for three and a half months. They came in the night of November and left the Boers, who were in the town, to go to the Boers' side, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our heads and through our windows, but it was the English bullets that were coming in town. My neighbor and I were sitting on the slope in front of the hotel when the Boers came and the bullets came all at once, so with my three little children I stayed here, the shot and shell bursting around us every day. When I look back and think of the terrible time and how we were preserved through it all, we really have a great deal to be thankful for."
Kruiser said in one of his prayers to his people that "God would direct the shells and so he did, for the people that were killed in town were three Boers and a Kaffir girl, and the bullets were flying over our